First Nations & James Bay Cree
Day Scholar Certified Class Action
Update October 24, 2016

Tk'emlúps te Secwepemc, Sechelt First Nations, and James Bay Cree Paddling together for Justice, Reconciliation, Healing & Wellness for our Nations!

Healing one heart, one mind, & one spirit at a time!

Ttes-SFN-JBC-Three Class Members

- Survivors: people who attended a
- Federally owned and operated residential school during the day and returned home every night.
- Descendants: the children (son or daughter of the day scholar only) natural, legally adopted or traditionally adopted by ceremony
- Band class: a band with a residential school on or near their lands, or that had day scholars.

Negotiations Update

- May 24, 2016 a joint meeting was held with Minister Bennett, TteS, SFN and James Bay Cree
- The purpose was to initiate discussions for negotiating a resolution
- At that meeting TteS-SFN-JBC requested that Minister Bennett appoint an MSR-Ministerial Special Representative.
- October 5, 2016 Justice Harrington directed Canada to appoint MSR within three weeks, or report back to court

Going Forward

- Continue to hope that negotiations will proceed
- Recognize that time is of the essence
- Will proceed with litigation if negotiations continue to stall
- In the process of working with our expert and Canada to determine size of Survivor and Descendant class
