

Tk'emlups te Secwepemc
Stsmemelt Community Engagement
THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 2020

Tk'emlups te Secwepemc is inviting interested members to attend an informative engagement session to share concerns/issues with the current Secwepemc jurisdiction over our children and families.

Key Questions will include:

1. How familiar are you with the current Secwepemc jurisdiction over our children and families?
2. What might be your concerns about the developing and enacting of the Secwepemc jurisdiction of our children and families?
3. What are the strengths and/or assets in our community that promote safety and well-being for our children?
4. Who do you believe should have a role/voice in the planning, implementing and decision making when Secwepemc children and families are at risk?
5. Do we have an age out strategy for our child in care? Who might be responsible to ensuring this process can/should be implemented and become part of policy?
6. What would you like to learn more about or see more of?
