Are you ready to apply your knowledge and skills to advance Indigenous governance capacity?
If this sounds like you, then we have an ideal career opportunity for you!

We are requesting immediate applications from enthusiastic, dynamic, and motivated individuals for the position of Director of Finance.

About Us:

Formed in 1980, Shuswap Nation Tribal Council (SNTC) is an aboriginal, non-profit society governed by nine member bands in the BC southern interior. SNTC's current operations focus on self-government, language and culture, employment and training, health services, fisheries management, and child welfare.

What We Offer:

- Healthy work-life balance in a desirable city in the BC southern interior region
- Vibrant local community surrounded by unlimited opportunities for outdoor recreation
- Well-established, stable, and growing organization
- Potential for a flexible work schedule and relocation assistance
- Competitive salary commensurate with experience and a generous pension and benefits plan

The Position: As Director of Finance, you will be responsible for leading the management, reporting, and administration of the financial affairs of SNTC. Please review the detailed job posting on the SNTC website for qualification requirements.

To Apply: Applications consisting of a cover letter and current resume with three employment references should be emailed to:

SNTC Reception at sntcadmn@shuswapnation.org

Subject Line: Director of Finance Application

This job posting will remain open until a qualified candidate has been hired. SNTC hires based on merit and is committed to employment equity. We strongly encourage all qualified persons to apply, however, in accordance with the SNTC Human Resources Policy and pursuant to the BC Human Rights Code, the first priority may be to hire qualified persons of Secwepemc ancestry.

Shuswap Nation Tribal Council thanks all applicants in advance for their interest. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
